The ultimate cheat sheet for Travel Bookers: For value and savings.

Are you working with passionate partners?

1. Am I able to contact one dedicated expert for all my travel needs instead of dealing with different people every time?
2. Do I have a dedicated travel partner who knows our business and travellers inside and out?
3. Can I rest easy, knowing that my travellers and I have a reliable 24/7 support team to handle any travel situation, anywhere, anytime?
4. Are we currently enhancing productivity with convenient solutions for complex travel itineraries?
5. Can I count on someone to support the needs of our travellers and our business with their commitment the best outcomes on every booking?

Do you have smart travel technology without the emotional baggage?

1. Do I have access to a reliable, user-friendly platform for seamless booking, reporting, and expensing, all in one place?
2. Do we have a tailored travel tech stack instead of a clunky "one-size-fits-all" setup?
3. Do we have straightforward approval features to cut out the constant back-and-forth for booking approvals, invoices, and traveller needs?
4. Can our travellers easily access an on-the-go app for real-time flight delay notifications, weather updates, online check-in reminders, and the latest safety requirements for their destination?

Are you getting the best value possible?

1. Do we have the options to choose from a huge range of air, hotel and transfer providers for competitive rates without compromised value?
2. Can we easily review our travel spend and activity to identify missed savings opportunities?
3. Do we have savvy travel managers who score us reduced rates and exclusive perks?
4. Are we getting value for areas beyond the booking service like complimentary breakfast, free Wi-Fi and late checkouts?
5. Can we negotiate greater value with travel providers as our travel programme grows?
